

Joseph Loughlin

Joseph qualified as a solicitor in 1998, and joined Freemans property department in 2006.

Joseph specialises in all aspects of non-contentious commercial and residential property matters including, in particular, acquisition and sales of all types of businesses, both residential and commercial portfolio investments, and site acquisitions for development.