

Laura Coyle

Laura deals with a wide range of family matters including contact and residence disputes, injunctions, divorce and ancillary finance matters. She represents parents in public law proceedings, where she is developing a strong reputation for her commitment to her clients and her clear advocacy style. Laura also acts for both Plaintiffs and Defendants in child abduction cases and other international family Law matters.

Laura obtained an LLB (Hons) degree at Queen's University in Belfast. She completed her training at Jackson & Canter Solicitors in Liverpool and qualified as a Solicitor in January 2007.

She remained at the firm after qualification in the family department doing a wide range of work. She joined the family department at Freemans in 2008 where she has been developing her expertise in children's cases.

Laura is a member of the Association of Lawyers for Children and Resolution. She is a volunteer for Rights of Women.

Notable cases

Re A (Abduction: Interim Directions: Accommodation by Local Authority) [2010] EWCA Civ 586 (Court of Appeal; Thorpe and Etherton LJ; 27 May 2010; [2011] 1 FLR)

<http://www.familylawweek.co.uk/site.aspx?i=ed66861>

M (A Child) [2010] EWCA Civ 1295

<http://www.familylawweek.co.uk/site.aspx?i=ed72207>

Re A (Children) [2010] EWCA Civ 1490

<http://www.familylawweek.co.uk/site.aspx?i=ed75244>