

Yogesh Patel

Yogesh was admitted as a Solicitor in 1986 having qualified with Lewis Silkin Solicitors and has been a Partner at Freemans since 2001.

Yogesh specialises in commercial property, acts for numerous off-shore companies and is well acquainted with transactions involving companies incorporated in such jurisdictions as the British Virgin Islands and Panama.

Yogesh is also a specialist in residential development and has undertaken a number of large scale developments, including the conversion of a hospital site into 243 residential units with a full leisure complex. He has also acted for clients involved in many high net worth transactions including the acquisition of a property in Mayfair for a consideration in excess of £20 million, the disposal of a mansion block in Chelsea for a consideration exceeding £30 million and represents a number of prominent and influential members of the Middle Eastern Community.